Re: Addition to Laws of Mini Footy and Mod League
From: Luke Ellis
Date: Thursday, 18 February 2010

Dear All,

Please note that the Australian Rugby League Board has recently approved the following additions to the Laws of Mini Footy and Mod League:

Addition to Mini Footy Laws

GOALS/CONVERTING A TRY (Page: 12)

(16) Note: In the event that a player, who has already attempted a kick at goal, attempts another kick at goal, prior to all other players (on the field at the time) being given a chance to kick, the points will not be awarded, if successful, and another attempt will not be provided to the team to convert that try.

Addition to Mod League Laws

GOALS/CONVERTING A TRY (Pages 34 & 35)

(16) For (9), 10 and 11 years

Note: In the event that a player, who has already attempted a kick at goal, attempts another kick at goal, prior to all other players (on the field at the time) being given a chance to kick, the points will not be awarded, if successful, and another attempt will not be provided to the team to convert that try.

For 12 years

Note: In the event that a player, who has already attempted a kick at goal, attempts another kick at goal, prior to all other players (on the field at the time) being given a chance to kick, the points will not be awarded, if successful, and another attempt will not be provided to the team to convert that try.

Updated copies of the Law books are currently in print and electronic copies on the ARL Development website will be updated in due course.
